BANGOR, Oct. 30, 1858.

(Signed) FRED'K E. SHAW, Sec'y.

The decided satisfaction which this book gives in the school room, and its unprecedented success, prove that it is a work of rare merit.

All those who are dissatisfied with the books now in use, are requested to give this an examination.

They will find it the most clear, concise, logical and practical treatise on written Arithmetic extant, following as it does the plan of Colburn's First Lessons—the two make a complete and popular series.

DR. HOBENSACK'S

Worm Syrup and Liver Pills.

PROBABLY one reason why Worm Medicines so frequently fail of any good effect, is the fact that they contain no qualities except as Worm Killers. Consequently in many instances where we mistake the symptoms of disease, and doctor for worms, when the cause of disease is not worms, but a derangement of the system and consequent debility and ill health, no good result follows, whereas in the use of Dr. Hobensack's medicine, it being an active remedial agent, as well as worm killer, the patient immediately gets well, though no worms are brought away.

Thus it will be readily seen that it possesses many advantages over other worm medicines, as it is not only sure to kill and bring away the worms, but builds up and restores the patient to general health, besides.

The Republican Party—Its Position and its Duties.

SPEECH OF HON. ISRAEL WASHBURN, JR., OF MAINE,

Delivered in the House of Representatives, Monday, January 10, 1859.

Now, sir, the other idea—the Democratic as opposed to the aristocratic, the Republican as contradistinguished from the oligarchic—the idea upon which this Government was founded, will never be left without a representative among the political parties of the country.—When, after years of uneasiness and apprehension, it became apparent to the people of the free States that the Democratic party, as it calls itself, had been subsidized by the slaveholders, and it was seen that among the organizations of the day there was no one which, from its combined earnestness and liberality, was competent to maintain the cause of liberty and republicanism against the plottings of the slaveholding oligarchy, they delayed not to call into existence a party which they hoped might be able to execute this high commission, and they gave it the name of the REPUBLICAN PARTY. Sir, what better or more appropriate name could have been given it? It is suggestive of the better days of the Republic; it has an odor of genuine nationality; its associations are of liberty, order, and law; it is the name by which the author of the Declaration of Independence, and the father of the Constitution, chose to be known; it speaks for itself, and needs no qualifying terms; and men who are afraid, or ashamed, to own it, are not, I fear, those to whose guidance the ark of the Constitution may be safely committed. The party which is worthy to wear it should hold every lover of liberty, every hater of oppression, every opponent of slavery fanaticism, whether in the North or in the South, for it draws the breath of its life from the Declaration of Independence, and it "stands in defense of the Constitution."

This party was formally organized at Philadelphia, in the month of June, 1856, and in the succeeding November it carried the elections in eleven of the free States by unparalleled majorities; and it is not to-day in the ascendency in every free State this side of the Rocky Mountains, the exceptions are those States only in which its friends have been unwilling to stand upon the strength of their own principles, and within the organization of their own party, but have sought alliances and coalitions with men, and bodies of men, whose purposes were not coincident with their own, thinking to gain something by swapping off principles for voters, and ideas for allies. Sir, this policy cannot win. God forbid that it should. Its fruits, where it bears any, are Dead Sea apples. The party which seeks to obtain power by adopting it will expose itself to the fate of the eagle which stole a piece of flesh, to which some embers were sticking, and thereby burnt up its own nest. How long before men and parties will learn that nothing is to be gained by fear and cowardice; that no party can or ought to reap success which does not believe something, and believe it with all its might? Mr. Chairman, parties and men, to borrow a figure from Walter Savage Landor, "like columns, are only strong while they are upright." If our idea is not the true one—if an oligarchy be better than a republic, or if there is no real danger, and the slaveholders do not deserve to be opposed, let us say so like honest men; but if, believing in Republican principles, and seeing that they are assailed, we desire that they may prevail, let us say that, and say it as if we were not afraid that we should fail in our efforts to maintain them.—We cannot fail, if we are true. There were never any issues presented to the American people so strong as those which have been given to the care of the Republican party. They are stronger than the party, or than any party that ever was in this country; and the organization which is faithful to them is stronger than any man in it. We shall grow weak only as we ignore and deny them. In those States where the Republicans have been contented to abide in their own organization, and rely upon their own issues, the party is united and impregnable; and a like policy will be attended with similar results in every State. But if Republicans will encourage men not to depend upon their own principles, but rather upon coalitions, bargains, and offsets—so much for so much—it will be impossible for them to preserve a party which will enjoy the confidence and respect of the people.

I have noticed that many persons, Americans and others, in opposition, are accustomed to speak of the Republican party not as a great, fixed, necessary party, with rights and purposes of its own, but as a chance gathering together of men, or as a mere organization of convenience, ready and fit to be used from time to time, as occasion may seem to require, as an instrumentality to defeat the Democratic party; not for the sake of vindicating Republican principles, but to beat the Democracy and place a new set of men in power. Not long since a number of very respectable gentlemen assembled in this city to see what was to be done with the Republican party, and how it could be made most available—not for a successful resistance to Democratic pro-slavery schemes and plans, but to whip the Democratic party. And they were so kind, according to a New York journal, as to say that the Republican party "is a great power" and that "its disorganization would be neither politic nor desirable; that said party has vitality and force which must be availed of in any effort to reform the Federal Government." I can smile at the charming patronage of these benignant gentlemen; but it gives me inexpressible pain to know that Republicans here and there are, by their words and counsels, giving these men and others license, or excuse at least, for holding the low views which they have of the character and mission of the Republican party. It is too bad, that men calling themselves Republicans should give countenance to this degradation of their party, treating it as a piece of merchandise to be disposed of to the highest bidder; and I have observed that there are some among them who seem even more anxious to dispose of what they have on hand than to get any thing in return, giving in [illegible] the liberal publican who, we are told, "exults to trust, and blushes to be paid."

Sir, a party must have faith in itself, and respect for itself, if it would be more than a mockery and a sham. To be powerful and respected, it must be positive and self-reliant. Its ideas and purposes must be clearly defined and well understood. It must have unquestioning faith in the truth, fitness, and necessity of its issues and objects; for its first duty is to be, in respect to them, as perfect as it knows; they should express its best thoughts and its profoundest convictions. A party earnest to be right will be earnest, and earnestness is the hardest opponent that wrong and error can encounter; a mere opposition party is, of necessity, a failure; it rarely succeeds in carrying an election, and when it does, it inevitably falls to pieces afterwards; for without unity of purpose, or homogeneousness of interest, with nothing to keep it together but the "cohesive power of plunder," it quarrels about the spoils, and, by poetic justice, finds its executioners in the causes of its apparent success.

Shall we admit that a party which was brought into the world to oppose the slave power in its efforts to overthrow our republican institutions, to maintain the fundamental ideas of the Government, to resist an oligarchy, to stay the spread of slavery, to restore the action of the Government to the principles of Washington and Jefferson, is not strong enough and well founded enough to succeed? That it has anything to gain by avoiding these issues or exchanging them for others? If there was ever a party on the earth which could not afford to hesitate as to its duty, or to be less than true and logical, it is the Republican party. Its fidelity is the condition of its success.

Let us, Mr. Chairman, learn wisdom from our opponents. Look at the Democratic party and note its policy. It has held possession of the Government, with short interruptions, for more than a quarter of a century, not because it has been always right, but because it has been in earnest and has dared to trust itself. It has never paid court to its opponents, or stooped to speculate upon their weak issues and divisions, always [illegible] and uncompromising, it has never doubted its own sufficiency and invincibility, and so it has ever been a mighty power in the land.

And let not the lesson to be read in the fate of the old Whig party be lost upon us. It was the weakness of that organization that it was too much a party of expedients and policy—always waiting for something to turn up. It had no sufficient faith and persistency, and lacked prevailing faith. Its questions were of measures rather than principles. It was more disposed to be controlled by circumstances than to make itself the master of circumstances; and so, with all its intelligence and worth, it enjoyed no great triumphs. In 1840 and 1848 it resolved itself into an apportion party, and though it gained two famous victories, it gained neither strength nor power. Divided in its councils, the Democratic party ruled, in fact, with exception of a brief period, the Administrations which it inaugurated.

In 1854 the slave power, acting through the Democratic party, demanded the abrogation of the Missouri compromise, by which slavery had been excluded from all that part of the Louisiana purchase lying north of 36 30, and that party being in power of course granted its request. A large majority of the people of the free States resisted this demand, not merely that it involved a violation of plighted faith, but also for the reason that the prohibition sought to be removed was within the constitutional power of Congress and a wise and just exercise thereof. The Democratic party north attempted to justify the Nebraska bill upon the ground that [illegible] was necessary to a practical recognition by the Government of what was called popular sovereignty. This was a false and deceptive pretext, for the reasons that there was [illegible] sovereignty in the bill, and the great majority of those who supported it knew that there could be any such thing [illegible]. The questions raised by this measure were discussed before the country with uncommon ability and thoroughness, and its supporters were defeated against the Douglas [illegible] territorial sovereignty. The [illegible] power of Congress over the Territories is scarcely denied anywhere to-day. The Dred Scott [illegible] affirms, but [illegible] the Federal Constitution, by virtue of which [illegible] guaranteed and protected in all the Territories of the United States. This is now the received doctrine of the whole Democracy. The Supreme Court of the United States had, in previous decisions, declared that the power of Congress was plenary and unlimited, and such had been the construction by all departments of the Government by all statesmen and lawyers, down to 1847 or 1848, when the dogma of squatter or popular sovereignty was [illegible] up by General Cass, [illegible] under difficulties of a [illegible]. And it is [illegible] worthy of remark [illegible] the [illegible] who have undertaken [illegible] Jersey—Cass, Douglas, and the rest—have been [illegible] with their own [illegible] and their [illegible] of the country, [illegible] an expression not unfamiliar in this House, are now breathing [illegible] and the [illegible] to [illegible] respectability [illegible].

There are [illegible] who [illegible] deny the authority of Congress [illegible] for the Territories, [illegible] of the [illegible] meaning [illegible] the men to [illegible] slavery. They [illegible] squatter sovereignty [illegible] and [illegible] the [illegible] Republican [illegible] as I understand it, [illegible] has vested in Congress [illegible] and plenary power over the Territories, [illegible] it is bound to exercise [illegible] power [illegible] the advantage of the [illegible] welfare, and the [illegible] expediency, [illegible] to the people of the Territories [illegible] in which they are [illegible] where the [illegible] should make the laws through the agency of a Territorial Legislature, but [illegible] upon questions which interest the people of the whole country, and where wrong [illegible] would affect injuriously the people of the States, who are the proprietors of the Territories, there the appointed organ of the proprietors, the Congress of the United States, should legislate directly [illegible], otherwise the sovereignty of the people of the United States would be laid at the feet of the [illegible] and squatters who might take themselves, perhaps, to escape from the hands of justice, beyond the limits of the States. And it has been uniformly held by the Republican party—and by all parties down to 1847—that the question whether slavery should occupy our new Territories, was one of such general interest and importance that it should be reserved for the action of Congress. The Republican party affirms what has been well stated by Hon. Caleb Cushing, that negro servitude is a deadly blight upon the social and economical condition of a country, weighing down its prosperity, corrupting the morals of its people of every class and color, and condemning it to long endurance of public evils." Hence it follows, logically and irresistibly, that whenever the members of this party have the power to inhibit it, it is their duty to exercise that power. Congress can keep it from a Territory if it will pass a law for its exclusion; and from the State to be formed out of such territory, for in no community from which slavery is excluded till it becomes a State, will it ever be subsequently established. It is said that by the Dred Scott decision the power of Congress to prohibit slavery is denied? I answer, there is no such decision, the opinions of the slave-holding judges upon this point were mere obiter dicta, of no binding force whatever; and further, that if they were opinions upon questions before the court, they would not be binding, as a statement of political truths, upon Congress or the people. The people are the source of power, and the ultimate judges in all political questions. Sir, if there is any man, or number of men in this country, who are authorized to decide political questions, and from whose decrees there is no appeal, then, we have a despotism; and it matters not whether that is one despot or nine, or whether the power is lodged with a king, a directory, or a supreme court. And, sir, to repudiate and resent this usurpation of the slave holding judges; this assumption of authority to decide such questions, and to impose a master upon the people, I would have Congress, on all proper occasions, affirm and exercise the right to legislate for the prohibition of slavery in the Territories. This should be done that there may be no presumptions against this right from non-user or acquiescence in the opposite theory. For these considerations, I desire to thank my friend from Missouri [Mr B air] for the resolutions which he offered in the House a few days ago, drawn as I am informed, by the distinguished gentleman who represented that State for so long a period in the Senate of the United States, (Colonel Benton.) One of them is as follows, and it contains sound doctrine:

"6 Resolved, That said decisions are in derogation of the power of Congress, and restrictive of its time-honored rights and practice to legislate for Territories, and being so derogatory and restrictive, it becomes the duty of Congress to vindicate its rights by asserting its full authority to legislate upon slavery in Territories, and declaring its total disregard of the said illegal, extra-judicial, and void opinions of the Supreme Court, which, accordingly, is hereby done."

Mr Blair. Those resolutions were drawn by Colonel Benton. I have the original in my possession in his hand-writing.

AUGUSTA, Jan 18, 1859.

The wheels of legislation are beginning to move, as business is received and referred to the committees. The working talent is developing itself, and I think bids fair to show as strongly as that of any Legislature for a dozen years back. The present will, in fact, compare favorably in all respects with its predecessors.

Railroad matters are not yet sufficiently developed to warrant any positive prediction as to results. There is much opposition to what we believe to be a wise State policy in regard to the development of our resources, but I am not without hope that some plan acceptable to all who sincerely desire the welfare of the State, may yet be devised. The Aroostook Railroad papers referred from the last to the present Legislature, was yesterday referred to a joint select committee in the Senate, consisting on the part of that branch, of Senators Hamlin of Penobscot, McClusky of Aroostook, and Anderson of Cumberland. To-day, the committee was joined in the House by the appointment of Messrs McCrillis of Bangor, Barrows of Fryeburg, Pierce of Kittery, Dunn of Poland, Cushing of Frankfort, Fish of Patten, and Burbank of Lewiston.

There is more opposition than I had supposed to the movement of biennial sessions.—It seems doubtful, in fact, whether the requisite two thirds vote can be obtained to submit the constitutional amendment to the people. Although recognized as a desirable measure of retrenchment in many respects, there are so many members who cannot see their way clear to support it. Some are fearful that the interests of the State will suffer if there is not an annual opportunity to amend the Revised Statutes, others imagine that private and special interests cannot get along for two years without a chance to grease the wheels and get a law passed, and yet others see difficulties in making the necessary changes in the details. I believe there are no insuperable objections to the change, and if the question were submitted now as a measure of retrenchment, I have no doubt the people would vote in the affirmative. If the press is any reliable index of public sentiment, we may conclude that the people favor the change. With one or two exceptions, every paper which has yet spoken upon the subject has spoken favorably. There is a feeling among the members that either this or an alternative measure should be adopted.—The alternative is, to limit the length of the annual sessions to, say sixty days each—all the time occupied beyond that to be without pay.

Col Smart appears to have been eminently successful in constituting himself the leader of the legislative democracy. He stole a march, decidedly, upon Consul General Moor and the other administration managers. They supposed him to be too deeply engrossed with the County of Knox to make any early demonstration in politics—and so, with a Blocking stone to keep off the custom-house gentlemen at the critical moment, the Colonel found it easy to gain an ostensible triumph against the administration, and to put himself in the position of leader. It is asserted, however, that he secured the acquiescence of some of the members, only by disavowing any special advocacy of Douglas as the Charleston nominee. As it was, the administration prudently evaded an open fight. They bide their time, however.

Woman's Friend Society.

At the Quarterly Meeting of the Women's Friend Society, on Thursday, January 13th, it was voted that a portion of the Reports of the Treasurer and Secretary should be published in one of our city papers. Agreeably to this vote the following abstract has been prepared for the Daily Whig.

There is no other limit to the aim of the Woman's Friend Society than its ability and the needs of those whom it seeks to benefit, but at present its energies are almost solely directed to the successful carrying out of the plan of an Industrial Agency, through which women who desire it, and especially the poorest class of women, shall obtain employment suited to their capacity. From the first this design has been met by the most generous sympathy from the citizens of Bangor, and received substantial aid from several quarters. Besides the annual membership, which amounts to $52, funds to the amount of $455 52 have been contributed from various sources, most of which have been publicly acknowledged, therefore it is not necessary now to enumerate them. The net proceeds of Twelfth Night Festival were $321. The Managers were desirous of raising $1000 for the purchase of goods for sale at the Agency, that they might depend upon the profits of them to pay the ordinary store expenses, rather than upon the somewhat uncertain and slow sale of made up garments. For this purpose several individuals were invited to lend the Society $20 for three years without interest. Several such loans have been pledged. Five have been paid in, which, added to the above sums, swell the amount to $929 62. At the meeting on Thursday it was voted to expend a portion of this fund in the purchase of goods both for manufacture and for sale.

The operations of the store have been as follows:

Expenditures.

Rent for three months	$37 50
Agent's salary for three months	48 00
Fuel, Gas, Sign, and other incidental expenses	35 59
Merchandise	326 29
Paid for labor	243 00
Total	$690 38

Receipts.

For orders executed	$171 13
Machine stitching	27 00
Sales and commission	249 00
Cash on hand	57 91
Garments at 10 per cent discount	160 87
Merchandise	76 35
Total	$742 26

It will be seen that there is a balance in favor of the Store; a result which the most sanguine of its friends did not anticipate for the first quarter. This gratifying state of things can only have been reached through the gratuitous labors so freely rendered by the managers and other ladies, and the gifts of articles for sale, from friends of the enterprise.—We cannot expect so much help hereafter, but hope that the profit on merchandise will more than make up the difference.

The Managers would have rejoiced in being able to have given work to all who applied, but they have felt compelled to refuse between 40 and 50, while they have given more or less to about 90, though some of these have as yet received only a single piece, while others have had from the first, not indeed, as much as they could do, but still something every week.—Now that the Society is in funds, the Managers will not in future be so timid in their expenditures, but run more risk in making up garments which may not be immediately saleable.

After the Reports had been read and considered at the meeting on Thursday, it was voted that the Managers be a committee to distribute twenty five dollars worth of the coarse unbleached under garments, on hand at the Store, to such deserving objects of charity as each of the Ladies might be personally acquainted with—which duty has been performed. A committee of three was also appointed, to give such assistance as they might deem proper to destitute females, whose situation requires aid somewhat out of the bounds of ordinary charitable operations. As the duties of this committee could not be very accurately defined, the whole subject was left to the discretion of the ladies composing it—the Managers only requiring a monthly report of their doings.

On Tuesday morning these officers arrested Daggett and Geo W Norcross, his brother-in-law, and committed them. In the afternoon they dug the watch out of the ground under the wood-shed of the house. Will not the Whig, "for the good of the cause," furnish us, gratuitously, with 4200 extra copies of it to fold into our Daily and Weekly issue? Only think, Bro Wheeler, how much good it might do the benighted readers of "The Union," and "The Democrat."—Union

We may possibly conclude to furnish you with three hundred copies to fold into your entire daily circulation, but we think even that would be a waste of material, as there can be little hope of converting a person who is stupid enough to take the Union or the Democrat under the present management.

A petition signed by 700 persons was presented to the City Council, at their meeting on Monday evening of last week praying that the City Marshal might be instructed to prosecute all violations of the liquor law, and to see that all offenders be brought to justice, and pledging to the authorities the co-operation of the petitioners, in the execution of the law No action was taken, because an order instructing the Marshal to like effect had passed the city Council in July last.—Ro Island Spectator.

FAMILY MEETING.—A meeting of the family of Calvin Fletcher, Esq, has recently been held in Cincinnati. One of his sons is a professor in Asbury College; another is pastor of the Wesleyan Chapel in Cincinnati, a third is the Rev. J C Fletcher, the lecturer on Brazil, where he has extensively travelled. The Cincinnati Journal says:

"The return of Mr J C Fletcher now brings together for the first time in their lives, all the children of Mr Calvin Fletcher. Though those who have been away have come home occasionally since their separation, this is the first time they have all been at home at the same time, and during their long absence younger brothers and sisters have been born, who now see all their brothers for the first time. It was an interesting event, and was duly commemorated by a daguerreotype containing the whole of them, taken by Bailey.—Such a family is rarely known anywhere. Of eleven, children none have died, all are well educated, well trained, honest, industrious and well esteemed. Some of them are filling posts of high honor and great responsibility, not in politics, but in walks more honorable. No one has fallen into dissipation, or below the high level on which their father's character has placed them. There has never been a black sheep in the flock.'"

The ladies of the Fund in new York recently applied to Fanny Kemble for a "reading" in aid of the purchase of the Washington estate. The accomplished English woman, after assuring them of her good will, flatly refused to do anything unless the proceeds "of her efforts were to be applied to the sluggish energies of Congress to enable that body "to discharge a duty which ought to be discharged by them, or not at all." Fanny was in a bit of a miff.

GREAT LAND SLIDE.—An extensive land slide has lately occurred at Hannibal, Mo, which the Messenger of that place, 6th inst, describes as follows:

We visited, yesterday morning, the scene of the late terrific slide near Lover's Leap. From the top of the bluff, for some four hundred yards, the entire mass of earth has slidden some forty or fifty feet, carrying in its wake trees, stumps and everything, in fact, that offered any impediment to its wild career, it must have been a grand sight to witness this avalanche of upwards of 100,000 square yards, whirling down the deep descent.

The excavator was crowded from its former position, a distance of forty feet, the hind wheels taken from beneath it, but no damage done to the machinery. The man who runs the machinery was at his post, but jumped off and ran in time to save himself. The engineer, who was inside with the engine, was not injured in the least. The only hurt was an unfortunate man named Pierney, who stood on the upper bank digging away the surplus dirt left by the machine. When he saw the whole bank above him was moving, he started to run down the hill, the slide, of course, overtaking him and burying him immediately, some thirty feet beneath the surface.

SLAVE TRADE.—We learn from the Edgefield, (S C) Advertiser, that at a late meeting of the Baptist Church in Rocky Creek, the following resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, We have been credibly informed that a large body of native Africans are within our midst, and an effort is being made to spread them broad cast over the country;

Resolved, That we do not oppose the extension of Slavery as we have it among us, but are willing to defend it with all the means which God has given us

Resolved that we have heard with deep regret that a number of these native Africans are in the midst of us.

Resolved, That to bring untrained negroes from Africa, and land them upon any portion of the soil of South Carolina, for the purpose of making slaves of them, meets our unqualified disapprobation, and we will oppose it with all the legal means in our power.

Whatever the motives we are glad to see that any portion of the people of South Carolina are opposed to the foreign slave trade, and mean to resist it by legal means. This is significant and hopeful. They evidently desire no extension of the system within their borders, though they do not "oppose" (but do they encourage?) what now exists.

CAPTURE OF SLAVERS ON THE AFRICAN COAST. A letter from Havana to the Savannah Republican says.

"The schooner Kate Ellen, which formerly hailed from Portland, and was partly owned by a person named Johnson, at Matanzas, at which port she fitted out some time since, has been captured by a British cruiser on the coast of Africa, having been detected in being engaged in the African slave trade. The brig Rufus Soule, formerly of New Orleans, which also fitted out sometime since, at Matanzas, was captured on the 11th of October last, off Cape Bengy, on the S W coast of Africa by the British steam cruiser Viper. The Rufus Soule had her slave deck fitted, and was to have embarked her living cargo on the night of the day on which she was captured."

A FAIR EXCHANGE.—A few days ago, Mr John Landwood, of Cadiz, Henry county, Indiana, was a passenger in a train on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. He occupied a seat near the door, and after dark dropped into a snooze, from which he was aroused by the passenger in the seat behind him, withdrawing his hand from his breast pocket, with his pocket-book in it. He attempted to seize the hand but missed it, and the pick-pocket immediately started for the door. Mr Landwood caught one of the skirts of his coat just as he emerged from the door. It gave way in his hand, and he then caught the other skirt, which also gave way, and though the train was under full headway, the thief jumped off and escaped with his pocket-book, containing $61. In the pockets of the coat skirt Mr L found however, to compensate him, two costly gold watches worth $150.

THE EIGHT WHEEL CAR SUIT—The Patent defeated.—The case of Ross Winans against the New York & Erie Railroad Company for a patent covering the eight-wheel cars, which was tried two years since in the Circuit Court of the United States, at Canandaigua, N Y in which a judgment was rendered against Winans by a jury, under the ruling of the Court, and which was appealed by Winans to the Supreme Court of the United States, was, in that Court, on Monday last, decided against him—that highest tribunal affirming the judgment of the Circuit Court.

Thus ends one of the most important patent cases ever tried in this country, involving as it did, in its issue, millions of dollars, and affecting directly almost every railroad company in the United States. This decision establishes the fact that Gridley Bryant, formerly Superintendent of the Quincy Railroad, Boston, and now of Scituate, Mass, and Horatio Allen, formerly Chief Engineer of the South Carolina Railroad, and now of the Novelty Works, N Y, were the first originators of the eight-wheel cars, now exclusively used on the railroads in this country, and destroys the only eight-wheel patent ever granted for originating the eight-wheel car—the one to Ross Winans, of Baltimore.

TREASURE AND LIFE.—Among the incidents related by the Columbus (Ga.) Sun, as occurring in the late railroad disaster near there, are the following.

One passenger, when he discovered something was wrong with the cars, laid hold of his carpet bag, in which was his money, a number of valuable papers and clothing, and he held his grasp until he had floated some two hundred yards down the creek; when finding from its accumulated weight, that one of the two things was inevitable, that either life or his treasure had got to go, he let it loose, and soon found the shore.

Mr Fickelberger, of Mass, had fifteen hundred dollars in bank bills in a roll, in a pocket of his pants, and the pocket pinned up, but in the scramble for life in the stream, a limb had to thrust itself into his pocket, ripping it open, and discharging its contents into the stream. He also had sixteen hundred dollars in gold, belted around his body.

HEAVY DAMAGES FOR MALPRACTICE.—In the Court of Common Pleas at Chicago, Dr Brach has been mulcted in the sum of fifteen thousand dollars for malpractice. He was called upon to treat for the fracture of a limb. This he did, and subsequently amputated the leg. The cause of the action occurred in 1853. All the medical witnesses concurred in the opinion that the treatment of the fracture in the first place was unskillful and improper, and that the amputation was a bungling piece of butchery. In view of the evidence, it was one of the grossest cases of malpractice which has ever transpired. The plaintiff sued for $75,000 damages, and it having been permitted to come in as part of the plaintiff's evidence that the defendant was worth $150,000, the jury having been out some hours, returned a verdict for the plaintiff, assessing the damages at $15,000.

A MURDER.—Boston, January 18. In South Franklin, Mass, last evening, Jonathan Wales shot Susan Whiting with a pistol, killing her almost instantly. Both were young, and formerly lovers. The supposed cause is jealousy. Wales fled.

RUMORED REVOLUTION IN HAYTI.—Capt Higgins, of the schooner North Wind, which arrived at this port, yesterday from Gonaives, (Hayti) reports a revolutionary outbreak in that vicinity on the night of December 22.—A small party of republicans, under the leadership of Gen Jeffards, entered Gonaives, where they were joined by a large number of the citizens, and soon took possession of the place. Capt Higgins also states that Aux Cayes, Jacmel, and the southern portion of the island generally had joined in the movement, and proclaimed Jeffards President. As the North Wind passed out by the town of St Marcs, Capt Higgings discovered that it was on fire, apparently in many places, and he has no doubt the belligerent forces were having warm work there.—Boston Traveller.

EXTRAORDINARY SALE OF NEGROES.—One of the most extraordinary sales of slaves—not so much on account of their number as for the prices obtained for them, although even the number was very large—was made at public auction, at the village of Autaugaville, during four days of last week. One hundred and seventy slaves, belonging to the estate of Richard Morton, were sold on twelve months' time, with interest added, for the enormous sum of one hundred and sixty thousand dollars, being an average of $941 and a fraction over. In the large number composing the lot were old and young, halt and lame, and one deaf and dumb. A girl, aged 14, black, and a field hand, brought $1,925 A young fellow was bid off for $2,100.—Montgomery Confederation.

REVOLUTIONARY SOLDIERS.—During the past year, eighteen Revolutionary soldiers have died, David Chapin, Gideon Bentley, John Titus, William Matteson, Robert Gallup, Zechariah Greene, and David Davis, of New York; Zacheus Robinson and Abraham Rising, of Massachusetts; Wm Turkey and Rev John Sawyer, of Maine; Thomas Kerowlin and Elisha Mason, of Connecticut; George Wells and Charles Gorman, of Tennessee; James Bushnell, of Vermont, Henry Straight and John Frazer, of Ohio. The Secretary of the Interior, in his last annual report, says that there are yet two hundred of the patriots of the Revolution living and receiving their pensions.

DEATH OF THE U. S. CONSUL AT ST. THOMAS. A letter received from St. Thomas, dated Dec 27th, says: "We have just received intelligence of the death, by yellow fever, at ten o'clock last night, of James W. Herbert, Esq., our consul here. He has endeared himself to the whole community by his frank and courteous manners and his zealous attention to the duties of his office. He is to be buried this afternoon from the Dutch Reformed Church. The shipping have their flags at half mast in respect to his memory."

SPAIN WISHES TO PURCHASE A PORTION OF THE UNITED STATES. The proposition to purchase Cuba has come so often that Spain seems to have grown tired of it, and hence is about to propose to the United States to sell Key West to Spain. The reasons given for her desire to possess a portion of the United States' territory are as plausible as those usually given why the United States should have Cuba, and is a fair retort upon our government.—Philadelphia Ledger.

'TAKING IT COOLLY.'—As a specimen of 'taking it coolly' we do not know of anything richer than this, from a Tennessee contributor:

Mr Barnes, wife and two children, his niece, and another young lady, with the writer, formed a party leaving Memphis for Clarksville, Tennessee, in the beginning of the summer of 1857. Arriving at Smithland, we were compelled to take a smaller boat, on account of the extreme lowness of the Cumberland River. Such was found in the Nettie Miller, a very nice little stern-wheeler. We were proceeding on our way rejoicing when suddenly we were all thrown out of our seats and brought up standing in the middle of our state-rooms. All the gentlemen rushed out in deshabille to learn the trouble, and were frankly told by the captain that his boat was badly snagged, and would sink in a few minutes! Mr Barnes flew with alarm to his wife and the young ladies, seized his children, deposited them safely in a wood boat which the Nettie fortunately had in tow, and ran back. Surprised not to see any of the ladies out yet, he rushed to his wife's room, and found her very quietly washing her face and hands.

'Why, my dear, the boat will sink in less than three minutes!'

'Well,' she replied, 'I think I can be out before that time.'

Dragging her along, he rushed, almost frantic with excitement, to the young ladies' room, and found them very quietly combing their hair.

'For Heaven's sake!' says he, 'young ladies, what do you mean? The boat will sink in two minutes; and here you are combing your hair!'

'Why uncle,' says the niece, 'you didn't expect us to go out there before all those young men with our hair in this fix—did you?'

All were finally safe on board the wood boat, except the captain and two or three of the crew. The steam was rushing from the boiler with a thunder-like roar, and the timbers of the almost sunken boat were cracking furiously, but loud above all these an old maid was heard to scream, 'Oh, captain, do go back to my room and bring me my teeth!'—Harper's Magazine

AN OLD MAN'S ADVICE.—The Rev Daniel Waldo, late Chaplain to Congress says: "I am now an old man. I have seen nearly a century. Do you want to know how to grow old slowly and happily? Let me tell you. Always eat slowly—masticate well. Go to your food, to your rest, to your occupation smiling. Keep a good nature and a soft temper everywhere. Never give way to anger. Cultivate a good memory, and to do this you must always be communicative; repeat what you have read, talk about it. Dr Johnson's great memory was owing to his communicativeness. You young men who are just leaving college, let me advise you to choose a profession in which you can exercise your talent the best, and at the same time be honest."

An encounter took place in a jail at New Brunswick, N J, on Tuesday last, between two German prisoners, which will probably result in the death of one of them. They were both in the workshop, cutting wood, when, by accident, one of them let a stick of wood fall upon the foot of the other which so exasperated the latter that he seized an axe and split open the head of his fellow-prisoner.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.

SENATE.—After the presentation of several departmental returns, memorials, etc, a joint resolution was passed permitting Townsend Harris, Consul to Japan, and his interpreter to each accept a gold snuff-box from the Queen of England.

Mr Pugh objected to the custom of American officers receiving presents from foreign potentates. Mr Pugh, Mr Hale and one other Senator voted no.

Mr Seward introduced a resolution which was adopted calling on the President for all the correspondence between this government and Spain relative to proposals for the purchase of Cuba.

Mr Johnson of Tenn, from the Committee on Indian Affairs reported a bill to enable the President to expend the annuities of certain Indian tribes for EDucational and agricultural purposes in their behalf. The bill was passed.

Several resolutions were adopted with reference to printing, the object being to limit the extent.

Mr Doolittle failed to bring up his resolution relative to Com. Paulding although he urged his necessity as heavy suits are pending against Paulding in the U. S. Courts at New York.

The Pacific Railroad bill was taken up, but the time being occupied in voting on the several amendments, the yeas and nays being taken in each.

The first amendment Mr Sebastian's that the Eastern terminus be at Fort Smith, Ark, was lost by 48 against 3.

The next Mr Houston's amendment that it be between the 30th and 32d parallels was also lost 22 against 21.

Mr Green's amendment was next considered being to the effect that the one road have two eastern termini, the southern not farther south than Fulton, Ark, and the northern not farther north than the Big Sioux and that the units not further west than the 102d degree of west longitude. Mr Green spoke in favor of his amendment.

After amendments by several other members Mr Brown moved that the bill be laid on the table

At this point it was thought that the bill with its amendments and re-amendments be printed as it was difficult to know in what shape it stood. Adjourned.

HOUSE.—The House passed the Senate bill authorizing the issue of American registers and a change of name to the steamships Cambria and America.

Mr Millson of Va. asked but failed to obtain leave to introduce a resolution, directing the Committee on Commerce to report back forthwith the Senate bill to repeal the fishing bounty law.

Mr Cobb of Alabama, from the Committee on Public Lands, reported a bill confining the aggregated compensation of the Registers and Receivers of the public Land Offices to $2,500 per annum each, which was passed.

Mr. Colfax reported a bill to revive and continue in force, without restriction or limitation of time, the bounty land acts of 1835, 1842 and 1854. Also, a bill providing for the re-payment of fund erroneously sold. Also, a bill authorizing the parties who settled on the 16th and 36th sections of land before they were surveyed to pre empt the same. Also, a bill appropriating $5000 to run a mark and establish the western boundary of Minnesota. All the above bills were passed.

The House then went into committee of the whole on the Bill to codify the Revenue Laws.

After some debate, Mr Kerr of S. C. moved to strike out the enacting clause.

Mr Comins of Mass hoped the motion would not prevail. It was the duty of the House to devote a few days with the view of amending and perfecting the measure.

Mr Kerr's motion prevailed.

The committee rose, when the House concurred in its action by 105 to 84.

The House again went into committee of the whole on the President's Message.

Mr Cox of Ohio advocated the President's recommendation of the acquisition of Cuba, showing the advantages which would result therefrom. Alluding to the remark of Gov. Chase, recently, at the New England dinner in Ohio, in favor of American expansion, Mr. Cox said, If the democrats don't look sharp, their republican friends will steal their thunder, and that the republican mouths were already primed with the idea of free sugar. He was willing to vote for the proposition of Mr. Branch, for placing money in the hands of the President for the purchase of Cuba, and in case of failure, would seize the Island in the event of war.

The Message was laid aside.

On motion of Mr Phelps of Missouri, the Consular and Diplomatic Appropriation Bill was taken up.

Mr Buckman of Pennsylvania said it was fortunate that the President's views on the tariff were not made a test of political orthodoxy, else the Secretary of the Treasury had found himself proscribed. There would be no tariff strictly for revenue, considering the diversified pursuits of our people. The financier cannot hope to reap where he has not sown. Revenue lies at the bottom of protection. The President had properly recommended specific duties, and ad valorem was not only destructive to the interests of the country but ruinous to its revenue. He gave his views on the tariff generally.

The Committee rose and the House adj'd.

WASHINGTON, Jan 18th

Mr James M Crane, delegate elect from Nevada, has issued a circular to members of Congress, presenting a long array of arguments why the bill to organize that Territory should become a law. The length of the Territory is about 600 miles and its width 450 miles. The population ranges from 15,000 to 18,000 souls. He gives a glowing description of its mines and agricultural features; saying in conclusion he can enter into no bargain or arrangement for omnibussing the Territory through Congress. The Territory of Nevada is suffering under a peculiar affliction. The bill to organize it is in advance of others. Let each one come up in order to be tested on its merits.

The House Committee on Territories this morning, ordered the bill to provide for the organization of a Territorial Government in Dacotah to be reported with a boundary extending west to the Rocky Mountains. Representative Colfax and Mr Graham, the delegate from Calona, appeared before the Committee and addressed it in favor of the organization of the latter Territory. The Committee arrived at no conclusion in regard to it. Should their action be ultimately favorable the Territory will, it is supposed, be made to cover a larger area than Mr Colfax proposed in his bill.

The Postmaster General estimates that $16,900,000 will be required for the service of the Post Office Department for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1860.

The Secretary of the Treasury has submitted to Congress his plan for reducing the expense of collection of Revenue to the extent of $400,000 per annum. He proposes the reorganization of the collection districts, the reduction of the 116 ports of entry to 76, and to discontinue 21 of the 84 ports of delivery. The salaries of officers to remain the same as under the recommendation. Their duties would be increased. He suggests the employment of steamtugs at the larger ports, and also whether the protection of the revenue and relief of the vessels could not be better effected by the Navy. The revenue cutters, he says, might be attached to the Navy Department, and their officers remain in the service until their present commissions expire or by promotion by death or resignation. Those who have rendered noteworthy service could be transferred to the Navy with an accumulated rank.

Mr Hatch to-day in the House made a strong but unsuccessful effort to get up the Senate bill making an appropriation for the St Clair Flats improvement. The motion encountered sharp opposition.

The annual meeting of the American Colonization Society was held to-night at the Smithsonian institution. The secretary's report states the receipts of last year at nearly $62,000 and represents that there is an increasing disposition among the free colored persons in the northern states to emigrate to Africa, and that the general interests of Liberia are evidently improving. The opinion is confidently expressed that the opposition to African colonization will fail to arrest the progress of the society, and great events are anticipated.

The Senate Post Office Committee have agreed to report a bill increasing the postage rate to five cents for all distances under 3000 miles.

This feature was opposed by Messrs Bigler, Dixon and Hale. The Committee are unanimous as to restraining the franking privilege, and propose to authorize the Postmaster General to make bids on the best terms without regard to particular modes of conveyance, as now designated by law. This bill it is said will save a million and half dollars to the Department. There is no probability that Congress will increase the rates of postage.

New Orleans papers of Wednesday last are to hand.

In addition to the news brought by the Tennessee heretofore published, it appears that on the 21st of Dec the Junta Popula in the city of Mexico formed of a great majority of the conservatives and the clergy established a programme, governmental, which proclaims the inviolability of Corporation property, and protests against the alienation or mortgage of national terrain y.

The island of Rock Island has recently been declared open to pre-emption like other public lands, except the ground occupied by public buildings. There are eight claimants, who have resided on the island with their families for two years, and four other contesting claimants. The island lies in the Mississippi, between the cities of Rock Island and Davenport, the railroad crossing it over the bridge on either side, and the land is very valuable.

On motion of Mr Pike of Calais, the communication of the Governor in relation to frauds in the elections in Aroostook, was referred to Joint Select Committee on that subject.

LINCOLN'S WATER PROOF BLACKING, AND LEATHER PRESERVATIVE.

Keep your Feet dry, and you will seldom need a Physician.

IS it not a truth that when the feet are cold we catch it is one of the greatest causes of colds and consumption? It is a truth that when leathers is often wet and dried, it soon becomes hard, stiff, and cracks, but when it is water-proof then is remedied by the application of this preservative, it remains soft, and entirely impervious to water.

After being engaged for 25 years in the manufacture of Leather in all its branches, and being often troubled with wet feet myself, I was led to experimenting on different compositions, and found it easy to make it water-proof, but at the same time extremely injurious to the leather. At last by a chemical process, I discovered a preparation which perfectly harmonizes with the nutritious properties with which leather is tanned. It will not only make leather water-proof, but itself-ware softens the leather, and it will Positively wear twice as long.

I have now used it for three years, and a large part of that time have worked in a wet Tannery with my boots constantly in water, and have not had my feet wet during that time I can therefore in all confidence, recommend it to the public as the best article in the market.

American Safety Paper

Capital $500,000.

A. NICHOLAS, President. Office, 79 Wall-st.

A Perfect Security against all manner of Fraud or Counterfeiting on Paper—To Prevent Photographs and Insidious Counterfeits, Erasures, Transfers or Alterations.

HAVING purchased the Patent for the exclusive right to manufacture and sell the Chemical Paper in America, invented and patented in England by HENRY GLYNN, a celebrated chemist and officer in the British army, it is hardly necessary to say that the Paper is recommended by Mr Kent, Assayer of the U S. Mint, Mr Lyman of the New York Clearing House, and Messrs Brothers, extensive and skilful photographers, 323 Broadway, N. Y. The latter say that no imitation can be made on a check or bank note printed on the Safety Paper. Below is our list of prices:

Bank Checks—35 cts. per lb.
Bank Bills—$18 for 1000 sheets.
Bills of Exchange—$25 for 1000 sheets.
Promissory Notes—40 cts. per lb
Sight and Time Drafts—$35 for 1000 sheets.
Insurance Policies—40 cts. per lb.
Railroad Stocks and Bonds—40 cts. per lb
Bank and State Stocks—40 cts per lb
Bonds and Mortgages—40 cts. per lb.
Wills and Deeds—40 cts. per lb.

For wrapping Silks and other fine articles it is excellent, as it prevents moths. 40 cts. a lb.

For Indentures and Agreements, 40 cts a lb.

All State and County Records should always be printed or written on this paper, as the chemicals inserted in the pulp not only prevents erasure or transfer, but renders it lasting as time.

For Southern climates it is excellent, and much superior to any other, as the moistness of the climate does not destroy it,—the properties inserted in the pulp being preventive In all the Southern States, Cuba, the West Indies, and the Central American States, no public records can be kept over 20 years, written on the ordinary paper, while the oils and other chemicals inserted in this paper makes it indestructible by the ravages of time. It is also proof against moths, rats and other vermin, which feast on and destroy all other paper now in use

The Company have now in operation Mills in Morris County, N J, of about 300 horse power, and are able to fill all orders for Paper at the shortest notice.

All orders for the Paper must be addressed to A NICHOLAS, President of the Company, No. 79 Wall street, New York

American & Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)

76 State St., opposite Kilby St.,

BOSTON.

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States, also, in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity of utility of Patents or Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar Assignments recorded at Washington

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, of ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that there is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber, and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessary of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors

The Boston Journal

FOR 1859

"The Favorite Paper of New England."

Published Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly.

Payment invariably in advance

In announcing the terms for THE JOURNAL for 1859, the proprietor deems it unnecessary to describe its peculiar characteristics as a newspaper, or to make any specific promises for the future He deems it sufficient to say that has been in the past it will be in the future the almost unanimous choice of the readers throughout New England, the favorite family newspaper of the New England States, combining all the qualities which go to make up a first class newspaper, a live newspaper The position attained by pursuing a steady, straightforward course in all respects, and by unremitting labor and money to give the latest and fullest reports of all matters of interest, at the earliest moment It has no superiors, and not upon the representations of its canvassers or "drummers" in search of subscribers and patronage of the Public—but upon the basis that it has now a circulation of three times as large as that of any other paper published in New England—and it is constantly increasing The principal reason for the employment of experienced editors and correspondents in all parts of the country, and by the most liberal outlay of money in procuring of important news in all departments, to make THE JOURNAL what it is—a live newspaper, the favorite paper of New England—and with this simple statement it commends itself to the attention of newspaper readers, and to the notice of newspaper dealers throughout New England.

The following statement of the terms for the several editions of THE JOURNAL

BOSTON DAILY JOURNAL

Six Dollars a year; Single Copies one cent.

Three Dollars a Year.

10 COPIES TO CLUBS

Five copies, one year
Ten copies, one year

To business men in the country who desire a Daily paper, the Semi-Weekly Journal is invaluable

BOSTON WEEKLY JOURNAL

Great Success of the Club Plan.

Three years ago the proprietor of the Journal decided to reduce the price of the Weekly Journal, and the success of the low price Club system has been so astonishing as to induce us to follow it here to-day.

One copy one year $2 00
Two copies, to one address 3 50
Five copies, to one address 8 00
Ten copies, to one address 15 00
Twenty copies, to one address 25 00
And two copies to every additional ten subscribers

PAYMENT TO BE MADE IN VARIABLY IN ADVANCE.

At the expiration of the time for which any payment has been made, the paper will cease to be sent.

The fact of success which has attended introduction of the Club plan in the case of the Weekly Journal, and which has led to

since its adoption, encourages its proprietor to continue the same plan He would therefore suggest to those who are about establishing a paper for the coming year, that there can be no better one of the best family papers, than the Boston Journal at a very low price—one within the reach of every man

The present season is favorable for the organization of Clubs for subscription to the Journal One enterprising man in each town and village can with little trouble secure a Club of ten or more copies and thereby get a paper for nothing

THE JOURNAL FOR ADVERTISING

Is printed on the 8th and 24th of each month for mailing by the steamers of the 9th and 25th. It is made up with the special care for the information of New England men's Circulation over twenty thousand copies a month are sent there, which is a much larger circulation than any other paper printed in the States has It is mailed at the rate of two cents a copy A person sending one dollar can have one inch of matter inserted in one hundred of the papers mailed, or in any one he may desire

TO ADVERTISERS

As an advertising medium the Journal has no equal in New England The cash, worth and unique system of yearly advertising has been entirely abolished, and a new and fair system of prices adopted by which each advertiser pays for the room occupied in the paper, at no more Advertisements may be left at the Counting Room or sent by mail or otherwise with the understanding that the prices charged will be set forth exactly in the published rates, and that they will be inserted on precisely the same terms as though handed in in person and a settlement made in advance No "drummers" or agents have been employed to solicit advertisements, and no discount from the regular rates will be allowed, however large the amount advertised These considerations combined with the fact that its circulation is nearly

Three Times as Large

As any subscription or Two Cent Daily is published in Boston, and that all advertisements appear in both the MORNING and EVENING papers, readers it a favorite medium for advertising with the public, among the most intelligent and enterprising classes
